HONORABLE DAVID FOLSOM
US DISTRICT JUDGE
TEXARKANA TX 75501

RE: NAVA-GOMEZ, Barnado
Docket No. 5:08CR00035-024
Transfer of Jurisdiction Request

Dear Judge Folsom:

On July 10, 2008, after pleading to False Use of a Social Security Account Number, the above-noted individual was sentenced by Your Honor to 86 days imprisonment followed by a 2 year term of supervised release. Said term of supervised release is subject to the standard conditions of supervision plus special conditions to include surrender to a duly authorized immigration official and, if deported, to remain outside the United States, and financial disclosure. On July 10, 2008, after being given credit by Your Honor for time served, Mr. Nava-Gomez began serving his term of supervision in the Eastern District of Texas. Mr. Nava-Gomez was granted voluntary departure in immigration court and subsequently deported to Mexico on March 2, 2009.

Mr. Nava-Gomez was apprehended in Laredo, Texas on August 5, 2009, for illegally entering the United States. He appeared before U.S. District Judge Diana Saldana in the Southern District of Texas on August 7, 2009, and entered a plea of guilty to the offense of entering the United States illegally. Mr. Nava-Gomez was sentenced to 120 days confinement, with a special condition not to return to the U.S. illegally or commit any other violations of federal and/or state laws. Since this violation occurred in the Southern District of Texas, this office is respectfully requesting that a transfer of jurisdiction be considered in this case so that it may be addressed more expediently.

Should your Honor agree, please execute Part I of the attached Transfer of Jurisdiction request and return. Should Your honor have any questions or require further information, please contact me at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Satori Barnes
U.S. Probation Officer
